Mokena Plans To Improve Its Sewerage Treatment

Improvement of Mokena's sewage treatment facilities has been ordered by the Illinois Sanitary Water Board and the village board is preparing plans to meet the recommendations.

The major improvement, it was pointed out, will be a polishing pond. This is to be built on a portion of the sewage treatment plant site that has been used to burn brush and diseased trees that had to be cut down.

If the village only had to build a pond, Mayor Eric G. Book pointed out, it would be rather simple but such a pond must also be equipped with pumps and machinery and this, of course, will add to the cost. A figure of $30,000 to cover the cost of this pond has been talked about but the actual costs cannot be ascertained until bids are taken. It is the hope of the village board that this work can be done within a year's time. A polishing pond is used for final treatment of effluent before it is loosed into the receiving stream.

The state water board has mother other recommendations which the board should be able to carry out without too great an expenditure, it was said.

The village also received a letter from the state department of public health that Mokena's water supply did not contain a sufficient natural amount of fluorine to meet the state's requirements. Trustee George Bills, chairman of the sewer and water committee, instructed Village Clerk Alvin Sorensen to write the health board to the effect that fluorine was being added to the water in the proper amount and had been for some months before the state law covering such addition went into effect on July 1, this year.

The village is also having an ordinance drafted to prohibit introduction of sanitary sewage into the storm sewers that will be installed as part of the Front St. paving program.

The village is widening and repaving Front St. between Division and School House Rd. New fire hydrants have been installed in this section and water service has been run across Front St. near the junction with School House Rd. It was expected that the actual work of improving the thoroughfare will get underway within the next two weeks. When this section is finished Front St. will be new from the west limits to School House Rd. The work is being done thru motor fuel tax money and financial assistance from the county.

The grade school board would like to have motor fuel tax money used for rebuilding Willow Crest Lane but inasmuch as the Front St. project will take the bulk of it the best the school district can hope for now is repairs for the lane.

Lincoln-Way High School Opens Do Week

The 1968-69 school year for Lincoln-Way High School will begin next week.

There will be a half-day session for all students 8:05 to 11:37 a.m.—on Thursday, Aug. 29, but the freshmen will already have had a half-day session. The frosh start school Wednesday, Aug. 28. They will attend from 8:05 until 11:50.

The first full day session, for all students, will be Friday, Aug. 30. Classes will run that day from 8:05 until 3:40.

When students enter the building these first days they are to look for a large bulletin board, carrying the names of their classes and listing the rooms to which they should report. At these rooms students will be given class schedules, locker numbers and other information. The students will report to their rooms when the first bell rings at 8 a.m.

Since approximately 1,350 students will be on hand it is suggested by school authorities that they report to their rooms as soon as they get their numbers.

A total of $16 in fees is to be paid Thursday and Friday, Aug. 29 and 30. This fee includes $11.50 for instructional materials, and $4.50 for locker, towels, school newspapers, etc.

Additional fees will be required for the purchase of uniforms for physical education classes. Laboratory fees also will be charged in the shops for miscellaneous supplies used.

A description of the student insurance will be available for all the first day of school. Cost of the student policy is $3 for school day coverage and $12 for a full year, 24 hour coverage.

A recent change in state law makes it mandatory for all new incoming high school students to have medical and dental examinations completed prior to the first day of school. Reports showing that such examinations have been made must be filed in the school office before a student is admitted to classes.

The following rules covering dress and personal appearance will be enforced by the administration:

Boys: Belts are required unless the slacks are originally tailored to be worn without one. All clothing to be worn in the accepted fashion.

Well kept haircuts are to be worn. The forehead will be exposed at least one inch above the eyebrows. No hair over ears or so cut that a large portion of hair is on the back of the head. No hair on or over the shirt collar. Sideburns to be no lower than the top of the center lobe of the ear. All shirts are to be tucked in, unless the style of the shirt is to be worn out.

Clothing must be clean.

No motorcycle jackets. No shoes or boots to be worn above the ankles. No cleats to be worn on shoes. No blue jeans. No chains, jewelry, or necklaces to be worn any time on the outside of the shirt.

Girls: Hair to be combed and worn in accepted styles. Accepted styles will be determined by the administration. Make-up to be worn with discretion. No clips to be worn in hair. Bobbi will not be allowed to wear skirts more than 2-inches above the top of the knees while standing. Girls that violate these rules will be assigned to Room 109.

Only skirts with blouses and sweaters, and dresses, are allowed during the school day. Culottes are permitted if they are of the proper length.

Clothing must be clean.

No shoes or boots to be worn over the ankles. No part of shoes to be wrapped around the leg.

There is little change in any of the bus routes from one year to the next. Any minor changes in time or direction are made in the first days of school. The same schedules that were used last year will be used the first two days.

Additional information may be obtained by calling the school office.

Why wait for a gas self-cleaning oven?

Go out and buy one.

The ranges good cooks have been holding out for are here. New gas ranges with self-cleaning ovens. (And everything else.)

The oven cleans itself automatically. Reduces dirt and soil to clean, white, wipe-away ash. And you can even vary the cleaning cycle according to the amount of soil in your oven.

But that won't help you cook any better.

What will...are the features of gas ranges. Traditional ones, like precision control of every phase of top-of-stove cooking. And new exciting ones...like automatic cooking and gas infrared broiling.

(Gas infrared broiling units cook quickly...provide eye-appealing browning, too.)

Frankfort Invites Neighbors To Attend Festival

On the weekend preceding Labor Day--Aug. 31-Sept. 1--the people of Frankfort are inviting friends and neighbors in the area to help celebrate the 150th birthday of Illinois and the initial success of its venture of capitalizing on its 1890 atmosphere to promote its growth and development.

Sponsored by the Frankfort Chamber of Commerce, the two festival days will be crammed with activities.

There will be an outdoor art exhibit along Kansas St., which for the duration of the festival will be known as Frankfort-On-The-Main, for the two days. Dances, a softball tournament, a model rocket exhibition, games, races, display booths, a German Band, and other entertainment will be found in Community Park.

The Frankfort Lions Club will have its annual Sauerkraut and Weiner Day dinner at the Veterans Memorial Building in the park on Saturday, Aug. 31 from 4 to 8:30 p.m. Softball games will be on at 2 and 8 p.m. and Saturday evening the Chamber of Commerce is having a dance at the Veterans Building, beginning at 9 o'clock. Henri Buttell's orchestra will provide the music. Costumes are suggested.

A combined church service is to be held Sunday morning at 10 o'clock in the Frankfort School gymnasium. Special music has been arranged.

Starting at 1 o'clock in the afternoon there is to be a parade. Afterwards, from 3 to 6 o'clock the Frankfort Woman's Club will serve a smorgasbord in the Veterans Memorial Building. A barbershop concert is scheduled for 7 o'clock that night and a free, teen age dance, will get underway at 8 o'clock on the tennis courts. This dance is to run until 11 o'clock.

S.W. Bowen laid out an 80-acre addition in 1855, a part of which was included in the present village. John Cappel is credited with giving the new prairie village its name. Cappel had come to Illinois from Frankfort-am-Main, Germany, and prevailed upon the developers of the new village to accept the name of his birthplace. Some say that he pinned the whole name--Frankfort-am-Main-- on his new home but apparently it was too long for his neighbors and the "am-Main" was dropped. Other settlers arrived, many of them like Cappel, a native of Germany, traveling over the Sauk Trail, which still runs thru the village.

Frankfort prospered and while it is modern today in its conveniences and outlook it still retains an air of the past century. Two years ago the Chamber of Commerce decided to capitalize on this charm and is preserving the heritage of the past. New construction is designed to harmonize with the old. It is 1890 again in this mid-western village.

Greetings from Frankfort to its namesake, Frankfort-am-Main have been sent by Mayor Glenn Warning to Herr Professor Doctor Willi Brundert, lord mayor of the German city. They will be delivered in person by Lawrence Mast, a resident Frankfort who was stationed for a time in Frankfort-am-Main following World War II.

Mayor Warning encountered Mast at the bank just after the village received a letter from Dr. Brundert, inviting Frankfort to send a greeting to Frankfort-am-Main. Warning noticed that Mast was purchasing travelers' checks and asked where he was going. When Mast said Frankfort-am-Main, Warning arranged for him to deliver Frankfort's message as an emissary of the village board.

The mayor and Village Attorney August Santoro prepared a greeting and also gave Mast a letter of introduction to the lord mayor. The Stamp Collectors Association of Frankfort-am-Main, the lord mayor explained in his letter, are celebrating the fact that their association was formed 90 years ago.

They are asking all the other Frankforts in the world to send them greetings on this occasion and on Aug. 29--which is practically festival time in Frankfort, Ill., the city council of Frankfort-am-Main preside over a 500 year old ceremony. The Pipers Court, in the same room in the city hall where the original ceremony was held in the middle of the 14th century.

Dr. Brundert explained in his letter that the International Trade Fair has been held at his city for the past 500 years and also that Frankfort - am - Main has served as the center of the European postal system for more than a century, long operated as a private business operated by the Princes of Thurn and Taxis.

Hold Funeral For Collision Victim

Funeral services for Roger Rasmussen, 35, of 253 W. Nebraska St., Frankfort, fatally injured in an automobile crash last Saturday (Aug. 17), were held Tuesday, Aug. 20, from the Schmaedeke Chapel at 10701 S. Harlem, Worth.

Mr. Rasmussen was killed and a woman seriously injured when their two cars came together on Illinois highway 7 at 138th St., Orland Township.

The other driver was Miss Maltie J. Dardi, 29 of 14302 West Av., Orland Park. She is in Christ Community Hospital, at Oak Lawn. On Monday afternoon her condition was reported to be satisfactory.

According to State Trooper Harold Wagner, of the Blue Island District, Miss Dardi was traveling south on Illinois 7 and Rasmussen was northbound. According to the trooper's report Rasmussen's car swerved across the highway.

Rasmussen was also taken to Christ Community Hospital where he was pronounced dead on arrival.

Besides his wife, the former Carol Siebert, of Midlothian, Mr. Rasmussen is survived by his parents, Fred and Stella Rasmussen, of Frankfort, and a brother, Allen.

The Rev. Wayne Koetz, pastor of St. Mark Lutheran Church, Midlothian, officiated at the funeral service. Burial was in Mt. Vernon Memorial Park cemetery.

Torrential Rains Sweep Thru Area

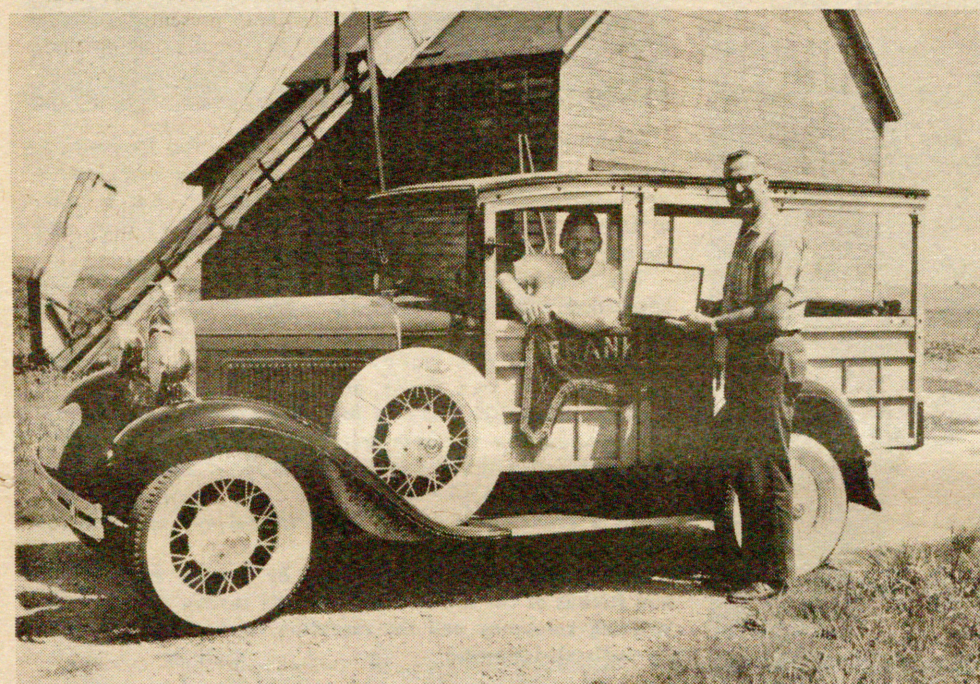

Heavy rains swept the area last Friday night and while there was damage done by the downpour the tornados that were sighted to the west and to the south failed to materialize and for that the people were thankful.

Rain gauges set up in yards and gardens in the area showed precipitation ranging from four to five inches, and that is a lot of rainfall in these latitudes in such a short time, especially in August.

Every community, from Chicago to tiny hamlets, had one thing in common last Friday night -- too much water. Persons were calling city and village agencies to report water in basements but there wasn't anything municipal authorities could do about it, they pointed out.

There was one strange thing reported, however, the night of the near cloudburst. That Rock Island underpass on U.S. 45 east of Mokena which always fills up every hard rain or snow, was as clear as a whistle is supposed to be Friday night and Saturday morning. The reason is simple. There has been some digging there in the work preparing to take U.S. 45 over the tracks instead of under and that gave the water a chance to run off instead of piling up in the underpass.

EYE ON SCIENCE

By JOE COSTA

Copyright 1968 World Book Science Service

The world's largest airplane (the Lockheed C5A) will have brake discs made of the newest and rarest of space age metals, beryllium, which will reduce its weight by more than 1800 pounds.

Four beryllium brake discs, designed and manufactured by B. F. Goodrich for the C5A, are shown being balanced with a single steel brake disc of the same size.

But it wasn't weight alone that prompted use of the new metal. Beryllium's ability to absorb and dissipate heat is five times greater than steel of the same weight.

Because the huge aircraft has 28 wheels, this quality is just as important in its braking system as it is in the heat shield of a spacecraft or missile, where beryllium is also used.

The high cost of beryllium metal -- from $100 to $350 a pound in block and extrusion form -- is attributed more to the complexity of its manufacture than to the scarcity of the ore.

In the C5A, which recently made its first flight, beryllium brake discs are expected to last much longer than steel discs.

Do We Know When Death Approaches?

Copyright 1968 World Book Science Service

Though we live under sentence of death from the moment we are born, most of us seem to put death farthest from our thoughts.

Not so, says University of Chicago psychologist Dr. Morton A. Lieberman, who has been studying certain factors in aging. He believes that older people approximately a year away from death show definite, detectable psychological changes, both intellectually and emotionally, that presage death.

They are not consciously aware of the changes, nor do they show fear or concern, but they begin to monitor all signs within themselves.

Dr. Lieberman finds that only those who undergo "environmental stress" (such as having to go into a home for the aged) show fear. "It is possible," he thinks, "that their crisis situation makes life impinge on them, and they fear they will die before they come to terms with or adjust to it."

But when is death?

The question arises periodically in history as a legal and moral, as well as a medical issue. To answer the question empirically and to give physicians guidelines by which to determine death, an ad hoc committee of 12 members drawn from different faculties at Harvard University reports its deliberations in the Aug. 5 Journal of the American Medical Assn.

Medical MEMO

By BETTY JOHN

Irreversible coma, or brain death, can have various causes, the committee points out: cardiac arrest, asphyxia, massive brain damage, poisoning, or metabolic derangements.

The denial of sufficient oxygen to the brain through respiratory failure and impaired circulation underlie all these conditions.

The three primary characteristics of a permanently non-functioning brain are unreceptivity and unresponsivity, no movement or breathing, and no reflexes. The committee recommends that electroencephalograms and electrocardiograms be made whenever apparatus is available.

"The final determination of death through irreversible coma, however, must be made by only a physician, and by one who in no way is connected with a transplant team," the report states.

It has a sucker organ on the top of its head which it uses to attach itself to sharks, barracuda, and other large fish, and partakes of the food of its host. The Junior Scientist

Copyright 1968 World Book Science Service

Some scientists have recently spent a lot of time filling and emptying bathtubs!

Water is supposed to spin counter-clockwise into a drain in the Northern Hemisphere and clockwise in the Southern Hemisphere. The rotation is related to the swirling pattern of the great storms and air movements in our atmosphere.

But it occurred to one scientist that nobody had ever really demonstrated the counter-clockwise swirling in this hemisphere.

Experimenters in Massachusetts set out to demonstrate that the principle really works, but when they filled a tub with water, the hose produced rotating currents. So, when they pulled the plug, the experiment failed repeatedly. The researchers then waited as long as 60 hours for the water to completely settle down. They were certain that breezes, uneven temperatures, and all other possible interferences were eliminated. Finally, success came. Water in Massachusetts indeed runs out of a bathtub in a counter-clockwise direction!

Australian scientists co-operated in this research, and their water proved to be as co-operative. It ran out of a bathtub in a clockwise direction. But some scientists still wonder whether they might have perhaps gotten the "right" results for the "wrong" reasons. Only patience will provide the final answer.

How's your patience? Can you find 15 words in the swirl of letters?

ANSWERS: scientist, bathtub, clockwise, hemisphere, experiment, demonstrate, current, patience, cooperate, research, positive, discovery, atmosphere, difficult, interference.

MR. AND MRS. GEORGE J. YAPP

Marriage vows were recited by Cheryl Ann Scott and Cpl. George John Yapp at 2 p.m. at the Marley Community church Saturday July 13.

Rev. John Burger performed the double ring ceremony uniting in marriage the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd E. Scott of Elmhurst and the son of Mr. and Mrs. George Yapp of Marley. The vocalist, Miss Mary Jane Stellwagen, sang "More" and "The Lord's Prayer." The organist was Mrs. Daniel McCarthy.

The bride wore an ivory, empire waisted, toe touching gown of linen and hand made Belgian lace with short lace sleeves. A crown of seed pearls caught the bride's shoulder length veiling. She carried a cascade bouquet of nine white gardenias.

Attending the bride as maid of honor was her sister, Mrs. Lynn Payne wearing a street length aqua crepe dress with empire waist and voile long sleeves. She carried a bouquet of colorful summer flowers. Mrs. Ayn Hall, the bridesmaid was dressed identical to the maid of honor.

The groom was attended by his brother, Bill Yapp of Marley and his cousin John Stellwagen of Tinley Park.

A reception was held in the church fellowship hall after the ceremony.

The couple are now residing in Waukegan. Cpl. George Yapp is stationed at the Great Lakes Naval Base awaiting further orders.

Constance Voight Is Wed To Robert J. Gamboa

Baskets of white gladioli, and mums decorated the altar of Trinity Lutheran church in New Lenox for the wedding ceremony between Constance Marie Voight and Robert John Gamboa.

She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Voight, 171 W. Wood St. in New Lenox, while John Gamboa is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Max Gamboa, 11212 W. 193rd St. in Mokena.

The nuptial double ring service was read by Rev. Leonard Reinke at 2 p.m. on July 6.

Appropriate background music was provided by Mrs. Amos O. Bruns, organist, who also accompanied the guest soloist, Miss Fran Klienhoffner.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a floor length gown of organza, featuring rosepoint lace edging at the skirt, long lace tapered sleeves, a scoop neckline trimmed with seed pearls and a detachable train from the shoulder. Her bouffant French silk illusion veil was caught to a nylon organza bow accented with sprays of pearlized lilies of the valley. She carried a cascade bouquet of white carnations and cymbidium orchids.

Attending as maid of honor was Miss Connie Peters of New Lenox. She wore an easy fitting near floor length sheath of sea aqua crepe, featuring a deep aqua bodice of Jakarte, with elbow length sleeves and a portrait neckline. It featured a panel of deep aqua from the back neckline to the hemline and a band of velvet daisies in the deep aqua shade defined the modified Empire waistline. Her headpiece was a cluster of deep aqua daisies with a jet veil of maline. She carried a bouquet of blue daisies with white carnations.

The bridesmaids, Miss Barbara Johnson of Mokena; Miss Karen Lane of Joliet and Mrs. Thomas Williams

also of Joliet, were dressed identical to the maid of honor.

Robert Whitley of Mokena served as best man and ushers were, Roy Anderson of Mokena; Tom Williams of Joliet and Walter Glaze of Chicago.

Little Diane Halley, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Halley of Joliet and niece of the bride, who was flower girl was also dressed in a gown patterned after the other attendants, and carried a basket of rose petals. Edgar Roos, son of Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Roos of Dolton was the bearer, and carried a white satin pillow bearing the rings.

A reception for 250 guests was held from 7-11 p.m. in the V.F.W. hall in Lockport with the Ed Tekel Orchestra furnishing the music for dancing.

Mrs. Larry Koppen of Westmont, cousin of the bride, cut and served the cake, and Miss Marion Voight, sister of the bride had charge of the guest book.

For her daughter's wedding Mrs. Voight wore a pink lace dress with white accessories and a corsage of white carnation and pink roses.

The bridegroom's mother, Mrs. Gamboa selected a mint green sheath with lace overcoat, white accessories and also wore a corsage of white carnations and pink roses.

The newlyweds honeymooned at Lake of the Ozarks and are now at home to their friends at the Village Greens apartments in Mokena.

Pre-nuptial parties were given by Miss Susan McFedries, Mrs. Shirley Halley, Mrs. Larry Koppen and Miss Connie Peters.

North Central College: Students Come First

* Thursday, August 22, 1968 GRAPHIC NEWSPAPERS Page 9

North Central College in Naperville exists for the student, the student who seeks a truly personal educational experience. North Central is an opportunity, a challenge, a time and a place for individual growth.

At NCC faculty and administrators realize that the student must be educated for tomorrow. Traditional concepts are blended with new methods of research.

North Central is a fully accredited, coeducational, liberal arts college and awards three degrees: the Bachelor of Arts, the Bachelor of Music and the Bachelor of Music Education. Many students undertake academic programs that will prepare them for professional schools of medicine, law, dentistry, medical technology, social work and theology or for work in graduate schools of arts and science.

An area of concentration, or major, is usually selected during the second semester of the sophomore year. Students may select from 25 majors: art, biology, chemistry, classics or Latin, economics and business administration, education, English, French, general science, German, history, humanities, mathematics, music, church music, philosophy, physical education, physics, political science, psychology, religion, social science, sociology and anthropology, Spanish or speech. Pre-professional programs in medicine, dentistry, medical technology, and law also are available.

North Central believes the true value of education does not lie in the number of students educated, but in the quality of the instruction received by even a single student. The quality of North Central's teaching is reflected in the tremendous accomplishments of its alumni.

This kind of education springs from an outstanding faculty. More than 60 percent of North Central's faculty have earned doctorate degrees in their fields of specialization.

In addition, classes are limited to a size that is compatible with the subject being taught. Therefore, classes that require a high degree of personal attention—such as English—are limited to 20 students. Seminars frequently enroll only three to six students and the over-all student-faculty ratio is a favorable 13:1.

North Central ranks in the top 15 percent of all four-year colleges and universities in the nation in the number of graduates who go on to earn a Ph. D. degree. This is a remarkable record for a college with an annual enrollment of 900.

North Central's unusual academic calendar frees January entirely from the routine of classes and assignments. During this Mid-Winter Study and Research Term students are free to concentrate on programs of individual interest. Students may also choose to simply rest and "recharge" themselves for the second semester.

The student body comes from the urban, suburban and rural areas of 28 states and six foreign countries and is evenly split between men and women. They represent 30 different religious denominations and a wide range of social and economic levels.

This "mix" of interests, backgrounds and aspirations creates a lively interchange of ideas and as a student's circle of friendship grows, he understands more about people and the rationale of their viewpoints. This new perspective and tolerance will be helpful throughout his life.

Interviews for admission are not required, however, prospective students are encouraged to visit the campus. An appointment to talk with an admissions officer can be made by writing the Office of Admissions, North Central College, Naperville, Ill., requesting a specific date and time.

NORTH CENTRAL COLLEGE'S student body comes from 28 states and six foreign countries. They represent 30 different religious denominations and a wide range of social and economic backgrounds. While studying and working together on NCC's 53 acre campus, the students learn to understand the rationale of other viewpoints. This new perspective and tolerance will be helpful throughout his life.

Lewis College: Bigger And Better

Everything will be 'big' on the Lewis College campus this Fall -- essentially because academic and extra-curricular activities at the Lockport college are bigger in size and scope than ever before.

Most noticeable, of course, will be the 1,880 students expected to begin arriving on campus Monday, Sept. 2. Labor Day isn't a holiday for 447 freshmen and 144 transfer students expected for registration and orientation activities.

The class of 1972, as it will be known, is the largest entering freshman class in Lewis history, and more transfer students will be on campus this Fall than ever before.

A year ago, total registration of all students showed 1,600 enrolled and just six years ago the college had but 600 students.

Classes begin for everyone on Sept. 5, including students enrolled in the evening program. Registration for the evening program's 26-course offerings is slated for Wednesday, August 28 in the main academic building.

Over 600 young men will find themselves in the attractive position of living two in a room in the three campus residence halls. They'll have an entire community to themselves -- including a post office, student newspaper, laundry, medical center, library, cafeteria, student store, theatre, complete athletic facilities, coffee shop and entertainment center and regular bus service to the metropolitan area and surrounding colleges.

Academically, Lewis is in its second year of an innovative Honors Program for outstanding freshmen scholars, and this year the advanced classes will be made available to superior sophomore students as well. Those enrolled in the Honors Program attend classes of more difficult subject matter, but, if they successfully pass, are able to waive other requirements and speed up their graduation day.

Over 500 Illinois residents will be attending Lewis under the State of Illinois' educational grant program, which entitles needy students to have part or all of their tuition paid. At Lewis, this can mean the state will underwrite up to $1,100 annually.

Another 100 students have earned state scholarships, worth up to $1,100 each. Together, the state grant and scholarship programs are paying nearly one-half million dollars toward the education of 600 Lewis students.

Though coeds have been on campus for a number of years, more are expected to take advantage of the Lewis and College of St. Francis shared-course program. The two schools have agreed to step up their co-educational course offerings and this fall 9 faculty members from St. Francis will live on the Lewis campus and teach a variety of courses. Bus service between the two colleges runs every half-hour during the day and up until 10 p.m. at night, Monday through Friday.

Even Will County high school students are getting in on academic programs of the college. Outstanding students in five high schools are taking part in Lewis' College Scholars program -- whereby they can earn college credits while taking ad-

Altruism and George Williams

We've been hearing lots about militancy, rights, affluence, security and rebellion . . . but whatever happened to altruism?

Altruism, "unselfish concern for others," somehow doesn't grab the headlines, but it's part of the campus scene at George Williams College.

Our graduates for 78 years have entered careers with voluntary community organizations . . . primarily the YMCA . . . which have as their objective some form of education in values. It is this unique quality of concern for others that makes the George Williams student.

While still learning, students put their knowledge to work where it will do the most good--among people. They work among older people who need to feel someone still cares; they work among boys and girls who look to them for leadership; they work among gangs to supply understanding, encouragement, and a push out of the ghetto; they work among teenagers in the affluent suburbs who are confused in a world of changing values.

In 1966, the college moved to a wooded 200-acre campus with fourteen new buildings in Downers Grove, Illinois, a suburb twenty miles west of Chicago's Loop.

Undergraduates have a choice of five degree programs in the Social Sciences, Natural Sciences, Humanities, Group Work and Informal Education, and Health and Physical Education.

Accredited by the North Central Association of Colleges and Secondary Schools and the State Department of Public Instruction of Illinois, George Williams holds memberships in four associations and councils of higher education and is approved and recognized by seven public and professional bodies concerned with higher education.

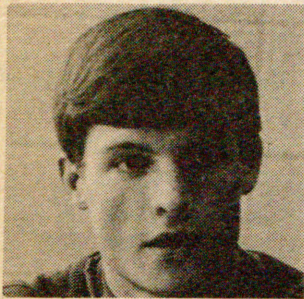

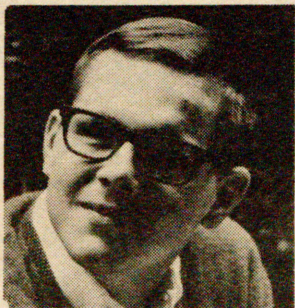

Three-fourths of George Williams students receive financial aid from grants, loans, and work-study programs. Yearly costs are $1,200 for tuition, $900 for room and board, and from $300 to $500 for books, fees, and personal expenses.

For further information and application materials, write to: George Williams College, Admissions Dept. D. 555 Thirty-first Street, Downers Grove, Illinois 60515.

Unique Courses Offered at NCC Evening School

Three unique adult education courses highlight the curriculum of this fall's North Central Evening School, according to evening school director, Dr. Gus A. Constantine, 75th St., Naperville.

The three classes, Income Tax Preparation for Individuals and Small Businesses, Investing in Stocks and Bonds, and Know Your Legal Rights, are part of a schedule that offers 32 undergraduate, graduate and non-credit courses in the evening school which will hold registration on Sept. 9, at 7:15 p.m., in the College Union.

The Income Tax Preparation course will be taught by Herbert Bell of Downers Grove and should be of value to almost everyone, says Constantine.

The Stock Investment class will be taught by Virgil E. Otto of Merrill, Lynch, Pierce, Fenner and Smith, Inc., of Oak Brook. The course will cover investment fundamentals and special subjects such as mutual funds and market charting will be reviewed.

Know Your Legal Rights will be taught by Donald J. Hennessy of Nadelhoffer, Hennessy & Dommermuth of Naperville. The course will cover wills, joint ownership, buying a home, auto accident facts and your rights if arrested. It is sponsored by the DuPage County Bar Association.

Other class offerings include courses in art, economics and business, education, English, French, German, Greek, history, mathematics, music, physics, political science, psychology, religion, sociology and anthropology, Spanish and speech.

Evening School admissions information is available through the North Central College Admission Department in the college library or at 355-5500, ext. 40.

Name Searching

What should be the name of the new junior college being planned by Illinois Junior College District No. 525? That is what the Board will try to decide within the next few weeks.

Should it continue to be known as Joliet Junior College because as the oldest public junior college in the nation it is known throughout the world by that name? Many people are in favor of either retaining its present name or at least retaining the word Joliet in its title.

Others feel that it should have an entirely different name more representative of the large area now included in the junior college district.

One suggestion has been J. Stanley Brown College, to honor the superintendent of the Joliet Township High School who in the late 1890s with Dr. William Rainey Harper of the University of Chicago conceived the idea of starting a junior college at Joliet.

Another has been Louis Joliet College, honoring an early explorer of the entire area now included in the new junior college district.

Also suggested have been Pioneer College at Joliet, Heritage College at Joliet, and Joliet Dresden College.

Because there are five rivers flowing through the district, the name of Five Rivers College has also been proposed.

What is your suggestion? Mail it today to the College Office, 201 East Jefferson Street, Joliet, 60432. While the suggestions will not be regarded as votes, all suggestions will be carefully reviewed.

Jr. College Building Plan 2 Stories Lower

One trustee seemed bewildered. "We're talking about $10 million" he said.

The College of DuPage board and administrators Aug. 21 had just learned what that sum is really going to buy.

It will buy, according to the architects present en force at the board session, just the bottom two floors and basement of a proposed four story building.

In addition, it will purchase a central utilities building, land and rights-of-ways, pay architectural, engineering, legal and administrative costs.

The total 190,656 square feet of buildings remaining will provide a total net assignable area of 99,084 square feet.

It is this "assignable" area which includes classrooms, laboratories, shops and support areas, library, faculty offices, food service and bookstore, study and lounge area, and storage for supplies.

The College of DuPage board last Wednesday sat at the crossroads where preliminary design meets definitive design.

They learned that the State Junior College board had Aug. 9 approved plans for the "instructional resource center".

William Wuerfel, project engineer for architects C. F. Murphy associates, said a bid date of March 1, 1969 will be achieved for the financial possible portions.

Price breakdown on the $10 million project includes $4.4 million for buildings, $2.3 million for central utilities, $5 million for construction contingencies.

It also includes $280,000 for land and right-of-ways; $1.7 million for site improvements and exterior utilities; $5 million for engineering with legal, administrative and development contingencies costing another $204,912.

The concourse building, now planned, said Murphy spokesmen, will feature reflecting glass and steel panel exterior walls, interior courtyards, and an aggregate lower level.

Interior courtyards will be planted so that students will be able to have an "outdoor experience" as they travel via the corridors from class to class.

The reflecting glass, which will appear dark during daytime hours, will reflect the campus in its panes. Reflecting ponds built to control storm water will further enhance the beauty of the campus, he said.

He showed the board scale models of the stairwell-elevator cores that will be repeated throughout the building.

The junior college will be built on acreage west of Park Blvd. and south of Glen Ellyn, the central campus approved for acquisition by the board in Dec. 1967.

Financing the project initially are the local taxpayers, who will provide 35 per cent of the funds; and the State of Illinois via the Illinois Building authority, 65%.

The Illinois Building authority will hold title to the property.

To date, no federal funds have been available to the College of DuPage. Ultimately, the expectation is that state and federal sources will provide 75 per cent of the total $40 million proposed construction program with local taxpayers picking up 25 per cent of the cost.

Busy Times Ahead For Senior Citizens

Fall activities at Riverside Senior Services Center will start with a program on Sept. 3, it was announced by Janet Newkirk, program director. Craft classes will start the week of Sept. 9. There are a few openings for beginners in ceramics, and there are openings in nearly all the other classes - especially in advanced sewing, millinery and handicraft. A chair caning class will not start until later in the fall. Other classes such as rug hooking will be formed as requests are made.

All activities of the center are open to senior citizens in Will County. Information about the center activities and classes can be obtained by telephoning 815-723-9713. Programs are scheduled for the first and third Tuesdays of each month at 1:00 p.m.

The first series of classes will run for 8 weeks. This makes it possible for a second series before the holidays, and it will give everyone an opportunity to be in one series of their choice.

The 7th and last of the summer bus trips will take place on Sept. 24 when 42 people will go to the Brookfield Zoo. Plans are being made for trips to the ice follies and to Drury Lane later in the fall. No dates have been set.

Mrs. Newkirk said that more than 300 people participated in the craft classes last year, and more than 1,400 people participated in one or more activities during the year. She anticipates that there will be many more this year, and there will be many more activities. A brochure will soon be available telling about the activities.

Vietnam Christmas Boxes Must Go Soon

Christmas gift bags for servicemen in Vietnam must soon start the long trip to the distant battle areas.

Red Cross officials said today that Sept. 1 is deadline for filled gift bags to be turned in at regional Red Cross headquarters, 222 N. Broadway, Joliet.

The bags will be taken to Mid-America Red Cross Chapter in Chicago for shipment via piggyback freight cars to the west coast. From there they will go by ship to Vietnam in time for distribution at Christmas.

Operation Shop Early already has more than 1,000 bags promised by generous Will County donors. The project began in April with widespread solicitation of clubs, organizations and individuals, urging everyone to take part in sending Yule gifts to men and women in uniform in Vietnam.

Gifts for each bag cost about $4. They must be chosen from a list of articles which will stand the long trip and the jungle climate in Vietnam. There is still time to fill a gift bag or donate money for items to be used in filling bags. Anyone interested may call Red Cross at 815-723-3494 for information or for assistance in sending filled bags to headquarters in Joliet.

Jr. College Leases Club

When classes start at Joliet Junior College in September, students will have a bona fide student center, because of the determination and hard work of its president, Elmer W. Rowley. A lease has just been signed with the George Werden Buck Boys' Club of Joliet, Clinton St. and Eastern Av., which occupies the former synagogue of the Joliet Jewish Congregation, a short block from the college.

Joliet Township Central High School announced last spring that it was no longer making available to the college a series of rooms that for many years had been used as a college cafeteria, classrooms, and a large news-production area. Since June the entire section has been converted into many small offices and conference areas for high school counseling.

Plagued by problems of where some 2,000 collegians were to eat, unless in the overcrowded high school cafeteria on the fourth floor; where to sit during free time between classes, unless in the overcrowded library where all seats were already occupied; where to hold meetings of the Student Council; where to work on publications to channel information to students; and where to gather for the informal discussions that are an important part of student life, especially among commuter students -- plagued by these vexing problems, President Rowley pondered the solutions.

First, the old Masonic Temple on Jefferson Street was investigated. Its many large rooms, its theater, the second floor ballroom and dining room facilities made it seem potentially an ideal student center. The probable cost of necessary alterations for college purposes however, would have been greater than the junior college board could approve. Other locations were then considered -- vacant buildings such as garages or empty dwellings. Finally President Rowley explored the possibility of using the George Werden Buck Boys' Club and ultimately was able to negotiate a lease with the directors of the club, which will not impair or restrict the present Boys' Club Program in any way.

Facilities at the club include a cafeteria-lounge area; a large game room equal in size to the gymnasium area, where many kinds of games will be available for the collegians; a meeting room for the Student Council, including a large area for seminars; a special separate room for preparing the college publications; two office rooms for counselors; and a large swimming pool now under construction, which will be available November 1.

Cafeteria service will be supplied by ARA - Automatic Retailers of America - one of the largest food retailing organizations in the United States. In addition to a speed line where hot foods will be served, there will be a fully automated snack and refreshment area where students may obtain sandwiches heated in micro-wave ovens, hot canned food such as soups, hot coffee, tea, and chocolate, cold beverages with four choices of flavors, milk and juices, candy bars and mints, ice cream bars, potato chips, and pastries. A typical day's menu includes such items as beef-steak Bavarian, baked franks and beans, barbecued pork chops, meatball and vegetable stew, baked veal loaf, tomato pot roast, a wide range of hot sandwiches, salads, fruit, pies, puddings, and shakes.

It is planned that the swimming pool will be used for both free swimming for students and faculty, and for physical education classes.

To use these facilities, including utilities and maintenance, Joliet Junior College will pay the George Werden Buck Boys' Club $27,000. "This should enable the Boys' Club to be of service to a larger segment of the community and should be a fine boost to the morale of our student body," said President Rowley. "The net cost to the district should be considerably less than the alternative."

Baseball Season Comes To An End

Mrs. Edward Hovi

The baseball season came to an end with the practice games against Manhattan. The B Teams did not play the Manhattan teams during the regular season play, but they did schedule some practice games to be played following the close of the regular season on Aug. 1.

Monday's game, played here in Arbury Hills, saw the Sandy's B Team come out on the very long end of the game with the boys having a good slug fest.

The game on Tuesday was played in Manhattan with the Rutan B Team playing and winning by another lopsided game by the score of nineteen to four.

The Rutan's team also played the following day, Wednesday, here in Arbury Hills. This game was a much closer affair with our boys squeaking past by the score of eleven to nine. The Thursday game with Sandy's team against Manhattan at Manhattan was rained out to be re-scheduled for Saturday afternoon.

The local schools will open next week with the Arbury Hills School opening on Tuesday, Aug. 27 for all except the kindergarten. The entire school will begin on Wednesday, Aug. 28. St. Mary's of Mokena will re-open on Monday morning, Aug. 26.

Young Joe Arcuri had to have his scheduled surgery postponed when he turned up with a skin infection at the wrong time. He is re-scheduled for a Sept. 1 operation.

Those boys who were recently picked at summer camp to be entered into the Order of the Arrow at Camp Morris will have to undergo their so called ordeal at Camp Morris on Sept. 13 and 14 in order that they may become official members of the Order of the Arrow.

Summer drought and heat can be just as hard on newly planted trees as it can be on people. Fortunately there's much that can be done to help trees over this first year hump.

The foremost requirement of the new tree is to have the right amount of water. Too much water can cause root rot because it forces oxygen from the soil. Lack of water, a more common problem, will be exhibited often as a general wilt of the tree. In addition a water starved tree will show burning of the leaf margins or tip dieback. Such symptoms are often wrongly interpreted as a need for fertilizer. This therefore often encourages a bad practice--fertilizing a tree within a year after planting.

The correct amount of water will usually be applied if the ground is thoroughly saturated with a hose once a week. Water again when the soil is dry to the touch or exhibits unusually wide cracks.

Some trees have trouble because they are planted over a hard pan. A hard pan is a layer of compacted soil, usually clay, that may be located two to four feet below the surface. Such a layer does not allow for proper drainage thus, a small amount of water can cause over watering. Local nurserymen have discovered that a hard pan may be penetrated with a post hole auger. For permanence, four inch agricultural tile is stacked in the hole and filled with gravel.

Girl Scouts Having Successful Camp

As the third session of Camp Manistee gets under way, it is possible for South Cook County Girl Scout Council camp evaluators to make some judgments as to the '68 season. Miss Phyllis Law, "Dusty" to the campers, and her staff of 34 comprise one of the most competent and enthusiastic groups ever to guide this area's Girl Scouts at summer camp. The camp program consultant is Miss Lauri Lang ("Shawn" at camp) of Warsaw, Wis.

The staff includes many members trained as water safety instructors and there are specialists in aquatics, music, nature, camp craft and Indian lore. There are three riding instructors. Seven staff members from the '67 season returned for this year. Four staff members were former C.I.T.'s - Girl Scout "slanguage" for counselor - in - training. There are seven counselors from within the council and two special foreign exchange counselors, one from the Netherlands and one from Sweden.

The theme for this summer at Camp Mainstee is Indian Lore. It is being carried out by the actual building of a fifteen foot teepee in the center of the camp site.

In order to expand girls' experience in the out-of-doors a series of progressive trips has been developed. Canoe trips of up to four days are undertaken by the older campers. Pack trips of shorter duration are undertaken by patrols who are eligible at any age if qualified riders. There are seven new rowboats for learning boating skills.

Nine C.I.T.'s are in their first year of training this year. Six are from the council area, two from Michigan and one from Minnesota. They started training July 23 and will continue until the close of camp on August 19.

C.I.T. training includes regular hours devoted to classes plus apprenticeship in camp units working directly with the girls under supervision of unit leaders. They gain leadership experience, program knowledge and campcraft skills.

The following campers are at Mainstee now from Orland Park and Tinley Park:

Mary De Ment, 9324 Birch St.; Joan Doogan, 10030 W. 146th; Terri Gray, 14918 West Av.; Michele Hibbeler, 12814 Sycamore; Phyllis McKown, 91 Surrey Hill Dr.; Cameron Smith and Sue Smith, 12133 70th Ct.; Pam Metz, 18236 80th Av. and Nancy Porter, 17318 S. Odell.

Public Hearing On School Budget Set For Sept. 12

Finance was a major topic at the last meeting of the Frankfort Grade School board.

The tentative budget, which received approval by the board, is on file for public inspection in the school office, Oregon and Hickory St., and is scheduled for passage at the next regular board session, Sept. 12. That is the date for the public hearing on the appropriation measure.

The question of finance came up because it has come to the attention of the board that a number of property owners are paying taxes under protest this year, which means that the money will be held up for all taxing bodies until the objections have been settled. This could mean that the board would have to borrow money eventually.

The budget for 1968-69 shows estimated expenditures to total $485,161.40 while the estimated revenue is figured at $447,403.15.

A summary of the budget is as follows:

Estimated revenue:

Certificates from the state department of public instruction giving full recognition to the Frankfort Grade Schools were received by the board and placed on display in the school office.

The board completed the faculty for the coming school year; Mrs. Sandra Hankowitz was employed to teach a third section of the fifth grade until November. Supt. Leroy M. Olson hopes he will be able to find a teacher to replace Mrs. Hankowitz at that time.

The complete faculty:
Kindergarten, Mrs. Arlene Schultz; grade one, Mrs. Isabella Gaines and Mrs. Barbara Nusbaum; grade two, Mrs. Mary Martin and Mrs. Donald Stupp; grade three, Mrs. Virginia Osmus and Mrs. Joan Keener; grade four, Mrs. Sharon Foster and Mrs. Linda Kummer; grade five, Mrs. Margaret Robertson, Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Bochtler (splitt class) and Mrs. Hankowitz; grade six, Mrs. Bessie Cronk and William George; grade seven, Joseph Boylan and Kenneth Reiss; grade eight, Wayne Hendricks and William Fenwick; choral music, Miss Linda Grepares; instrumental music, Perry Friedman.

Mrs. Bochtler will also serve, part-time, as the school librarian and Mr. Bochtler will also serve, part-time, as the administrative assistant and will be housed at Chelsea School.

Mary Smith Is Feted At Bridal Shower

Miss Mary Smith, Dante Court, Joliet, was the honored guest this past week at a miscellaneous bridal shower given by Miss Nancy Fredin, and Mrs. Ronald Fredin, in the Fredin home at 135 Oakview Drive in New Lenox. Miss Smith will become the bride of Lt. Kurt Fredin on Aug. 31 at 2 p.m. in Grace Baptist Church at Troy.

Upon her arrival at the party the bride-to-be was presented with a corsage of white stephanotis and tied with blue streamers.

Novel games were played and prizes were awarded to Miss Marlys Coates of Waterloo, and Mrs. Robert Lynn of Lockport. Duplicate prizes were given the bride-elect, as well as many lovely gifts.

Refreshments were served buffet style from a table covered with a white cloth, decorated in shower motif. The guests of honor's chosen color scheme of blue and white was carried out in the decorations.

Guests were present from Waterloo, Io.; Bettendorf, Io.; Joliet, Lockport, New Lenox, and Frankfort.

MODERN METHODS of pipeline construction assure safe, economical transmission of natural gas. Here — after x-rays were taken of all welded joints — a giant 36-inch line for Northern Illinois Gas Company is coated, wrapped and tested before being buried by a four-foot earth cover. The NI-Gas system contains 16,400 miles of main, including 111 miles of 36-inch pipe, to serve its nearly one million customers.

Taxman Gets 1st Count

Illinois ranks first among the states in number of local governments, with 6,453 as of January 1967, according to Maurice W. Scott, executive vice president of the Taxpayers' Federation of Illinois. Scott commented that the Illinois General Assembly should have a good look at the multiplicity of local governments, the overlapping authority and the wide variance in taxing power, before giving any further consideration to the creation of more local taxing authorities.

There are 102 counties in Illinois consisting of two

Orland Chest Agencies Get Their Checks

At a recent special meeting of the Orland Village Board on Monday August 5th Mayor Melvin Doogan presented a third quarterly check to each of the agencies supported by the Orland Township Community Chest.

The groups present and accepting checks were: South Cook County Girl Scouts, Miss Florence Schlott and Brownie Eileen Enk, Junior April Scholz and Cadet Ann Whitfield; Robert Smith represented the Southwest YMCA; the Rev. Victor Sivore, chairman of board of directors of Family Service of Southwest Cook County; Mrs. Mary Lou Smith for South Suburban Homemakers Service; Mrs. Marvin Cooper, Orland Township 4-H Council and members Barbara Bernard, Michael Sheehan, South Cook County Queen Marianne Cooper and Jerry McCarthy; Orland Youth Association, Nicholas Sesol with Billy Brown, Kathy Battles and Rich Bain, and Eldon Shimek accepting check on behalf of the Boy Scouts.

forms of government. The township form, of which there are 85, is governed by a board of supervisors, and the commission form, numbering 17, is governed by a board of commissioners. The 85 township counties are made up of 1,432 townships governed by the electors at the annual town meeting.

Municipalities number 1,256 in Illinois, consisting of cities, villages and incorporated towns. Also there are 1,350 school districts in the state. While Illinois has done a commendable job in school consolidation, Scott noted that there are areas of the state that still need attention in this regard.

The largest category of local government is the special district. This category is made up of 2,313 special purpose governments with a primary function ranging from mosquito abatement to mass transportation. Drainage districts numbering 811 comprise the largest single group in this area, followed by fire protection and park districts with 704 and 217 respectively. There are commissions and authorities listed under special districts which are limited in scope so as to only apply to a small segment of Illinois or to a particular problem within the state, while there are those created to handle situations of a general application throughout the state.

One might be curious to know what the property tax price tag is for the services rendered by these governments. The local property taxes extended and collectible for 1967 totaled $1,823,993,442. School districts received $1,088,213,130 (59.66%); Cities and Villages $352,522,866 (19.33%); Counties $134,728,285 (7.39%); Townships and Road Districts $80,071,183 (4.39%); Special Districts groups received $168,457,978 (9.23%). While it is only realistic to assume that few of these governments can be abolished, Scott commented that consideration be given to the study in depth of possible consolidation before any further expansion of local governments is contemplated.

Edison Puts 2 New Generators In Use

More power to serve growing summer demands of customers was added to the Commonwealth Edison Company system today when two 38,000-kilowatt peaking generators were placed in service at Waukegan generating station.

Chairman J. Harris Ward said the addition of the units' 76,000 kilowatts increased the net generating capability of the Edison system to 9,733,000 kilowatts -- a net increase of 1,186,000 kilowatts since the start of the year.

Ward said Edison's program to install 1,104,000 kilowatts of peaking capacity by next spring is now past the half-way mark. Another 38,000 kilowatt unit is scheduled for service at Waukegan this month and 440,000 kilowatts will be installed at three different generating sites in Chicago, Joliet and Rockford.

General Electric Co. and

Worthington Corp. are supplying the fast start-up generators which are designed primarily for operation during periods of unusually heavy demand for electricity. The units also provide reserve power for emergencies.

Commonwealth Edison early this month set a new peak load record of 8,681,000 kilowatts -- a gain of 1,038,000 kilowatts over the peak load of last summer.

Lewis Has Record Frosh Enrollment

Everything will be 'big' on the Lewis College campus this fall -- essentially because academic and extra-curricular activities at the Lockport college are bigger in size and scope than ever before.

Most noticeable, of course, will be the 1,880 students expected to begin arriving on campus Monday, Sept. 2. Labor Day isn't a holiday for 447 freshmen and 144 transfer students expected for registration and orientation activities.

The class of 1972, as it will be known, is the largest entering freshman class in Lewis history, and more transfer students will be on campus this fall than ever before.

A year ago, total registration of all students showed 1,600 enrolled and just six years ago the college had but 600 students.

Classes begin for everyone on Sept. 5, including students enrolled in the evening program. Registration for the evening program's 26-course offerings is slated for Wednesday, Aug. 28 in the main academic building.

Over 600 young men will find themselves in the attractive position of living two in a room in the three campus residence halls. They'll have an entire community to themselves -- including a post office, student newspaper, laundry, medical center, library, cafeteria, student store, theatre, complete athletic facilities, coffee shop and entertainment center and regular bus service to the metropolitan area and surrounding colleges.

Academically, Lewis is in its second year of an innovative honors program for outstanding freshmen scholars, and this year the advanced classes will be made available to superior sophomore students as well. Those enrolled in the honors program attend classes of more difficult subject matter, but, if they successfully pass, are able to waive other requirements and speed up their graduation day.

Over 500 Illinois residents will be attending Lewis under the State of Illinois' educational grant program, which entitles needy students to have part or all of their tuition paid. At Lewis, this can mean the state will underwrite up to $1,100 annually.

Another 100 students have earned state scholarships, worth up to $1,100 each. Together, the state grant and scholarships programs are paying nearly one-half million dollars toward the education of 600 Lewis students.

Tho coeds have been on campus for a number of years, more are expected to take advantage of the Lewis and College of St. Francis shared-course program. The two schools have agreed to step up their coeducational course offerings and this fall nine faculty members from St. Francis will live on the Lewis campus and teach a variety of courses. Bus service between the two colleges runs every half-hour during the day and up until 10 p.m. at night, Monday thru Friday.

Even Will County high school students are getting in on academic programs of the college. Outstanding students in five high schools are taking part in Lewis' College Scholars program--whereby they can earn college credits while taking advanced courses in their high schools. This year, outstanding students in these high schools will be taking part in the scholars program: Providence High School, New Lenox; St. Joseph High School of Westchester; St. Charles Borromeo High School, Lockport; and St. Francis Academy and Joliet Catholic High School, both of Joliet.

Social and athletic activities begin almost as soon as formal studies start. Freshmen of Lewis and St. Francis open the social year with a "Let's Get Acquainted" dance at the Lockport campus during freshman orientation week.

Shortly after, soccer and cross-country teams begin intercollegiate play and more than a dozen intramural sports programs get underway between residence halls and fraternities.

Hey, Cover Bugs! How About This

Manned Spacecraft Recovery Forces of the U.S. Navy will again provide collectors with first-day cachet and cancellation services for the upcoming Apollo 7 manned space flight.

Philatelic coordinators designated for the U.S. Atlantic and Pacific Fleet Recovery Forces (Task Force 140 and 130) will receive all such envelopes and make the distribution to assigned ships.

To permit adequate time for required handling of Atlantic ship covers, collectors should air mail pre-stamped, self-addressed envelopes to arrive at Norfolk prior to September 1968.

Due to the popularity of this service and the limited postal facilities aboard recovery ships, no more than 8 covers can be accepted from each individual collector. Collectors may send an additional 4 covers to Task Force 130, the Pacific Recovery Force.

The following are addresses for the Atlantic and Pacific area coordinators:

TASK FORCE 140, Public Affairs Office (Apollo 7) Manned Spacecraft Recovery Force, Atlantic, Building SP-71, Naval Air Station, Norfolk, Virginia 23511.

TASK FORCE 130, Chief - in - Charge (Apollo 7), Navy Terminal Post Office, FPO San Francisco, Calif. 96610.

Frankfort Park District Adopts Appropriation Ordinance

Mrs. Katherine Heisner
Telephone: 469-5187

The Frankfort Community Park District has adopted its first appropriation ordinance.

The total amount is $9,130. Some $450 is expected to be received through gifts and fees and the amount to be included in the tax levy is $8,680.

The possibility exists that the group will receive the first tax money in June 1969 so this has been prepared in the event the park district receives funds before Sept. 1969.

The park district budget and appropriation ordinance has been posted in the village hall for public inspection.

The park district commissioners were reminded by the president, Donald Stupp of the Work Day to be at the community park Sunday, Aug. 25 to clean up the grounds and trim weeds in cooperation with the Fall Festival Days that will be observed in Frankfort Aug. 31 and Sept. 1.

He pointed out that S.P.C. is still soliciting cakes for the Sauerkraut Dinner Aug. 31 and anyone able to donate a cake can call Mary Lou Saxon or Janet Page.

Tinley Gardens Plans Get Acquainted Party

The Tinley Gardens Homeowner Association is planning a really big "Old Fashioned Get Acquainted Party" for every family in the community on Saturday evening, Aug. 24.

The street surrounding the playground, including Lenore Lane and Ethyl Lane will be blocked off for the festivities which will start off at 5:30 p.m. with girls between the ages of 4 and 14 showing off what they've learned during their summer baton lessons.

A Box Lunch auction will be held for the adults while the children's games take place.

Plenty of free beer, fruit punch and coffee will be provided during the evening. An old fashioned square dance in the street, with professional caller, Roger Tuttle, putting everyone through their paces, will highlight the evening. After dark, a bonfire will be lit and the community will be invited to join in the singing.
